

Husband's Self-Evaluation

IOM AMERICA

Statement	Yes	No
Does each of your family members feel that you love, accept and forgive them daily?
Does your wife feel that she comes first in your relationship?
Does your family believe you are devoted to them and their success?
Are lines of communication open between you and your wife?
If applicable, do your children consider you to be a responsible dad?
Have you been sexually faithful to your wife?
Have you looked at pornographic material this past year?
Do you masturbate outside of foreplay with your wife?
Does each of your family members know what your goals are for the family?
Have you considered divorcing your wife over the past year?
Do you consider yourself to be a good financial provider for your family?
Did you have sexual relations with your wife before married to her?
Do you believe your wife is "submissive" to your authority?
Do you read the Word of God (Bible) to our wife on a consistent basis?
Do you have unresolved anger toward your wife?
Do you read the Bible to your children regularly?
Would you tell your children it is OK to have sex before marriage?
Do you fully complete "honey to do" lists without being reminded?
Does your wife respect you as a leader?
Do you consider yourself to be a passive/aggressive male?
Do you consider yourself to be a controlling husband?
Are arguments a regular part of your style of marital communication?
Do you find yourself defending your position of head of your home?
Are you actively involved in the lives of your children, i.e.; sports, the arts etc.?
Do you have the freedom to share your deepest, darkest, secrets with your wife?
Do you have a male mentor that you see on a regular basis?
Do you share your fondest dreams with your wife as a lifestyle?
Has your wife ever asked you if you are having an affair?
Do you consider "lusting" after women adultery?
Are you actively involved in a local church?
Do you consider yourself to be a Christian?
Do you own your own Bible? A Bible in the home does not count.
Do you read the Word of God at least twice a week?
Do you consider family to be the most important institution in life?
Do you hear God on a day to day basis?
Do you consider yourself to be a "servant leader" type?
Do you diligently work at pleasing your wife sexually before "climaxing" yourself?
Do you consistently screen media (TV, movies, games etc.) within your home?
Do you compare your wife to other women in the market place?
Do you believe a man should be held accountable for his actions?
Do you believe your wife has authority over your physical body?
Do you consider yourself functioning under the authority of the church?		